Welcome to Cherished Candles!

"Value Yesterday, Cherish Today, Embrace Tomorrow"

Cherished Candles is a faith based American owned company that we started in 2013. All of our products we personally make in our home state of Missouri!

Cherished Memory Candles were created to help one express and remember how much the people we loved touched our lives.

Each memory candle is made with an engraved message that can be personalized or kept generic.

Cherished Candles are known not only for quality, beauty, and passion but to help one express their values, faith, humor, and love. They are created as something to Cherish.

Blessings,
Autumn & Eric
